

HSNA ART in the PARK
Saturday, April 22, 2023 – 09:00AM-4:00PM
Community Vendor Booth Information
“Community Corner and Children’s Craft Center”

You are invited to apply for a booth space for Heart of Sumter’s Art in the Park 2023. The event’s setting in historic Memorial Park (old Hampton Park) provides a beautiful and unique venue for patrons and vendors alike.

HSNA’s Art in the Park 2023 is a nonprofit event with proceeds, such as vendor booth fees, going toward sustainment of the festival and toward support of local SUMTER and SHAW AFB nonprofit organizations. Attached you will find booth specifications, event guidelines, and the application to participate.

501c/approved & nonprofit organizations will not be charged food vendor fees and will keep 100% of their sales.

Space will be awarded on a first-come, first-served basis before the deadline of April 5, 2023. Each food vendor can sell up to two food items subject to approval by the HSNA Art in the Park Committee (food vendors will not sell beverages). In addition, we will offer the following to our food vendors:

- Listing of all food vendors on our HSNA’s Art in the Park 2023 Facebook Page along with a link to your website to share your mission and events.
- Additional advertising (print, radio and social media).

With space for at least 150 art/craft and food vendors, we expect to draw a large crowd from Sumter, elsewhere in South Carolina, and beyond.

As noted above, the deadline to apply to become a FOOD VENDOR is April 5, 2023. If you need more information upon review of the materials, feel free to contact HSNA via email at SumterHSNA@gmail.com.

The Children’s Craft Center booths are available to be ran by a profit or nonprofit organization(s) and shall be a 'no fee' booth (donations may be received for the "sponsored nonprofit" /mission). Each of these booths provide crafts for children to complete and take home.

Sincerely,

Heart of Sumter Neighborhood Association’s Art in the Park 2023
